WELCOME

We are Desert Provisions, a woman-owned and operated business re-imagining the modern Southwest kitchen. We seek to find the exceptional in unexpected places and are proud to bring desert-derived salts & spices to kitchens across the country.

Our custom gifting program is an extension of our passion for thoughtfully curated, unique collections for your most important people. We hope you enjoy and we look forward to collaborating.

MEET DESERT PROVISIONS

WHERE THE DESERT MEETS THE SEA

Place is important to us. Ingredients for all our products are from the desert regions in the American Southwest. While the desert is a seemingly unlikely food source, it has been feeding people in this region for more than four thousand years. We think it's pretty special.

Central to our products is our Sonoran Sea Salt and Hatch chile spice. Our salt is moon-harvested from the Sea of Cortez in Baja California, where the Sonoran Desert harmoniously meets the sea. We work with multi-generational farmers in Hatch, New Mexico to bring you the freshest powders, flakes, and salt blends. Discover the extraordinary tastes and captivating stories behind our handcrafted products inspired by the bountiful desert Southwest.
